

BLOCKCHAIN LEADER OF THE YEAR

This award recognises a leader from the blockchain industry who is a pioneer, visionary, strategic thinker and role model. The Blockchain Leader of the Year Award recipient will also be recognised as an influencer in the industry and have demonstrated their engagement with the community (keynote speaking, advocacy, & media interviews) in helping to improve on and champion the use of blockchain technology.

Eligibility

- This is an individual award.
- Individual entrants must be Australian citizens or residents,
- Applicants must have made a significant contribution to the growth of the blockchain community, education and development or collaboration among blockchain community members.

Application Questions

No. 01 —

Provide a brief statement outlining why you should win and how you differentiate yourself from other nominees (max 200 words)

No. 02 —

Demonstrate how your individual contribution and leadership has positively, and enduringly, impacted/is impacting on the blockchain industry (max 300 words)

No. 03 —

Provide evidence of your contributions to improving on and championing the use of blockchain technology by;

- presenting at professional conferences, seminars and/or workshops or
- publishing articles in print or through electronic media
- nurturing and mentoring individuals, groups and /or associations on cryptocurrency and blockchain technology (max 500 words)

No. 04 —

Has there been any media coverage of your activities? Please provide examples. (max 200 words)

No. 05 —

Provide examples of your work, customer feedback & media coverage including the upload of documentation (max 200 words).